

 APPLE NET WORTH:
$2 Trillion

& STILL

BENEFITTING FROM UYGHUR FORCED LABOR

Hey Siri, When will Apple
STOP being complicit in China's Forced Labor Camps?

"Forced labor is abhorrent, and we would not tolerate it in Apple."

- Apple CEO Tim Cook

Then why is Apple lobbying
AGAINST
the Uyghur Forced Labor Prevention Act, Tim?

Have you failed to uphold your commitment?

Are Uyghurs not people?

Our Commitment to Human Rights

"At Apple, we are optimistic about technology's awesome potential for good. But we know that it won't happen on its own. Every day, we work to infuse the devices we make with the humanity that makes us."

—Tim Cook

People Come First

At Apple, our respect for human rights begins with our commitment to treating everyone with dignity and respect. But it doesn't end there.

We believe in the power of technology to empower and connect people around the world—and that business can and should be a force for good. Achieving that takes innovation, hard work, and a focus on serving others.

It also means leading with our values and respect for human rights in every part of our business, from our customers and partners to our supply chain.

With humility, optimism, and a belief in the power of technology to improve the lives of everyone who touches it, we work to ensure that our products and services are designed with the humanity of every person in mind.

Our Commitment to Human Rights

We're deeply committed to continually assessing our progress and building the lessons we learn into everything we do. We've worked hard to embed a respect for human rights
